GENERALI SKI CUP 2023

Once again, even in a challenging environment, GENERALI SKI CUP is coming back with the organization from A.S.D. Gruppo Generali Trieste.

The ski-race open to everybody (professional and not) will be held on Saturday, March 11th, 2023 in Pustertal in the Kronplatz ski area. The precise ski-run is still to be confirmed.

Participants allowed are all ASD Gruppo Generali Trieste members and their families when the members are present.

Additionally invitation is extended to:

- Generali Group employees;
- Retired Generali Group employees;
- Generali Groups agents;

All the family members of above categories are allowed when together with them.

Location of the race, schedule, type of race and rules for the competition will be advised as soon as available

All the skiers are participating in the SKI CUP under their own responsibility removing any liability from A.S.D. Gruppo Generali Trieste ('the Organization').

Medical certificate in line with the rules presently in force in Italy are required to all participants and must be submitted to the Organization; in lack of it the participation to the race is not allowed. Parents of children under the age of 18 will be required to fill an authorization form for their children to participate.

The participation in the race as well as the hotel availability and any other initiative connected to the event will be subject to any possible new rules and restrictions related to Covid-19 emergency (or any kind of emergency) in force in Italy at the time of the event.

SUBSCRIPTION: each participant will be asked to pay an entry fee of € 10. In lack of it he/she will not be allowed to participate

LOGISTIC: All the participants to the SKI CUP and their mates will benefit from agreements made by the Organization with the local hotels and structures. All reservations and payments will be arranged by the Organization if in line with the instructions and timing presented in this document. For those who are not within the categories listed above no service will be provided by the organization. Any change to the reservations made communicated after the 15/2/2023 will be managed individually by the participants.
